What happened, where and when:

Note: In most states, any boating accident that involves a fatality or injury requiring medical treatment beyond first aid or property damage over $500 must be reported to the nearest state boating authority. Some states have lower property damage limits, so check your states website or go to www.safeco.com/statewatercraftregistration to link to your state's site.

Accidents happen – even to the most careful operators.

Knowing what to do after an accident will help you to remain calm and in control. It may even make the experience a little less frightening. Take a moment to review this guide and keep a copy onboard for quick reference.
