

Is your home equity
protected from earthquakes?

Your Homeowners insurance policy does not provide coverage for earthquake damage. A standalone Earthquake insurance policy like Quake Select is an affordable way to protect your home equity in Washington.

QUAKE SELECT COVERS:

- A YOUR DWELLING The limit for the physical structure of your home and attached features. We will match your homeowners Coverage A Dwelling amount starting at $100,000, up to $3,500,000.
- B YOUR OTHER STRUCTURES The limit for external structures not attached to your home, like a detached garage or fence.
- C YOUR PERSONAL PROPERTY The limit for personal items located at the residence premises.
- D LOSS OF USE For additional living expenses that pay for housing and living expenses if your home is uninhabitable. It also pays fair rental value if your home that is rented to others becomes uninhabitable.
- E LOSS ASSESSMENT Provides coverage for your portion of assessments levied by a property owners association. Includes $10,000, or you can increase to $50,000.
- F LIMITED BUILDING CODE UPGRADE Necessary to bring your home up to the current local building code standards. Includes up to $10,000, or you can increase up to $30,000.
